Pan-Pacific Vintage Division

Twelve hickory golfers in Australia and New Zealand participated in a special division. Their McIntyre balls ordered were still at the international mail center at O'Hare Airport in Chicago when players teed off. As a result these golfers played with normal balls on a course with hole distances greater than Oakhurst's, but with hickory shaft clubs. New Zealander Shane Egar took first place with a net score of 157.

QUO-NA-VADIS Coronavirus World Hickory Open

Three Winners at Three Sites

Three divisional champions played in the 'remote' NHC at three different sites from among the 24 sites in use.

John Lavendoski, Bainbridge Island, Washington, was crowned the Champion Golfer of the Year when he carded a 71-75 = 146 to win the Open Division.

In Miamisburg, Ohio at the Mound Golf Course, where the NHC had been contested the past two years, Dave Shultz, Portsmouth, Ohio recorded a net 134 after handicap.

Women were led by Rylee Stovall, Litchfield Park, Arizona with a net 165. In all three cases the winners were playing in their first NHC.

The Championship was contested for the 23rd time this year. Playing on 24 different courses the equalizing factors were the use of McIntyre balls, exclusively, and course set up template that simulate the 9 holes measuring 2,235 yards at Oakhurst Links in West Virginia, the birthplace of the NHC.
