

The 2023 Gutty Golf Spectacular

Furnace Creek Golf Course
Death Valley, CA
December 2 - 3, 2023

“It doesn’t get any lower than this”! 214 feet below sea level? Golf in Death Valley? Yes, yes, and yes! Welcome to the 8th annual PCHG’s Gutty Golf Spectacular, the first all Gutty tournament west of the Mississippi. This Gutty event will be contested at the Furnace Creek Golf Course in Death Valley, CA. The World’s lowest-elevation course will play about 4,700 yards and will play as a bogey 78. Palm and Tamarisk trees line fairways and majestic mountains are visible from all areas of the course. This event will take you back in time, playing golf like it was more than 120 years ago.

Golf will start at 11AM on Saturday for Round #1 match play (CP and Long Drive as well), and round #2 will be stroke play for the Championship at 9AM. Food and drinks will be at golfers’ cost after each round. The course has a great 19th hole I have heard. Awards will be presented both days after each round.

*Only the McIntyre “Park” Gutta Percha ball, and sand tees are used for this event. (no rubber/Oakhurst, modern line cut, or limited flight Braid gutties) Dress in period attire. (Temps in 70’s are typical at this time)

*** Check and entry form must be received by Friday, November 17th, 2023 to Eddie Breeden, 1200 Rugby Way, Upland, CA. 91786.

Format-

*For the first round (Saturday, December 2nd) Tee times start at 11am. We will be playing partner Match play. The better score of the two-man team will count against their opponents in Match Play format. We will also have our usual closest to the pin and long drive holes/awards.

After the round, we will meet at the bar for drinks and or food, and awards will be given. Saturday Night will be up to the individual. (There is a good Mexican food restaurant close to the hotel/course we may want to all have dinner at). Also, there will be a hotel room open for hanging out, club trading, drinks/snacks, POOL, etc. both Friday and Saturday nights.

*The 2nd round (Sunday, December 3rd) Tee times start at 9am. This is the Championship round using Stroke Play format. Once again, directly after play is complete awards and prizes will be handed out.

Lodging - IMPORTANT!!!! You will be responsible for finding your place to stay! There are two very nice resorts at the course - The Inn at Death Valley, and the Ranch at Death Valley. There also other places to stay like Death Valley Inn, Shoshone Inn, and even camping. Everything is really close in the area.
